Eric Siew

Executive Chef

Eric's presence since the pre-opening days of DoubleTree by Hilton Kuala Lumpur for the past 5 years has truly been remarkable in providing excellence in food preparation and dining satisfaction for the first DoubleTree by Hilton hotel in South East Asia. The opportunity to whip up a storm with the freshest and choicest ingredients, as well as seeing the smiles of contented guests, are the key reasons that have kept him striving for greater heights.

Hailing from Kuala Lumpur, the capital city of Malaysia, Eric started his culinary career in 2002 as Commis de Cuisine in Park Hotel Vitznau, Switzerland. A person on-the-go who thrives on the dynamic pace of kitchen and banquet planning, Eric landed himself in exciting pre-opening ventures for noted establishments such as Prego in The Westin Kuala Lumpur, SUDU in Hilton Kuala Lumpur and Rossio Restaurant in MGM Grand Macau. Today, with over 10 years of experience under his hat, Eric has a team of over 12 sous chefs who report to him daily. His craft and passion is evident in his modern interpretation of European and Asian cuisine, a talent that had led him to winning a gold medal in the cold food category at the recent 2013 Salon Culinaire Mondial, a competition that represents culinary art at the topmost level.

Eric graduated with an Advanced Diploma in European Culinary Arts from the prestigious school of DCT International Hotel and Business Management School, Switzerland. For Eric, life in the culinary world, where food is no longer a necessity but a passion, is an ongoing delightful learning experience. "When creating a menu, I think of how each ingredient complements one another to ensure a satisfying merging of distinct flavors and textures” says Eric. When not in hotel grounds stirring up menus or ensuring impeccable kitchen hygiene, this self-confessed foodie opt for two things: Driving at high speeds in motor rallies for pure adrenaline rush, or fishing by the pond for relaxation and quiet reflection.
